

Courtney Kelly

Executive Assistant

Courtney Kelly serves as Executive Assistant for the North American branch of the International Life Sciences Institute (ILSI) in Washington DC. She supports Sharon Weiss and works closely with the nutrition committees, Food, Nutrition & Safety Program and the Annual Meeting. She also administers the Future Leaders Award program. Courtney also supports Marie Latulippe with various technical committees.

Originally from Chesapeake, Virginia, Courtney earned a BA in English from Old Dominion University.

She has been with the organization since 2007.