

Heather H. Steele, MPhil

Associate Director, Program Development

Heather H. Steele, MPhil, Associate Director, Program Development, first joined ILSI North America in 1993. She manages the Food, Nutrition & Safety Program (FNSP), including the annual meeting scientific program and the emerging issues process, the Board Program Assessment and Strategic Collaborations Committee, as well as technical committees on Hydration and on Energy Balance and Active Lifestyle. She also manages ILSI North America's segment of the Annual Meeting.

Originally from Washington, DC, Ms. Steele received her B.A. degree with honors from Skidmore College, and an MPhil in International Relations from Pembroke College, Cambridge University (UK).