

Sharon Weiss MS, CAE

Deputy Executive Director

Sharon Weiss serves as the Deputy Executive Director of ILSI North America. In this capacity, Sharon manages the Food, Nutrition & Safety Program, the ILSI North America Annual Meeting, the organization's annual budget, and selected technical projects. She supports the work of the ILSI North America Board of Trustees and its Executive and Finance Committees.

Sharon previously served as the ILSI Administrator for several years and was Associate Director of the ILSI Research Foundation. She has managed a wide range of projects related to food safety, nutrition, biotechnology, toxicology and veterinary pathology.

Prior to joining ILSI, Sharon worked as a program development specialist for a consulting firm under contract to the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute to manage a large national professional and public health education program. She previously served as an HEW Fellow and has university teaching experience.

Sharon was awarded a BS degree from Allegheny College and her MS from Indiana University. She has earned the designation of Certified Association Executive (CAE) from the American Society of Association Executives.